

Conference Call

The Hungarian Universities Lifelong Network Association – MELLearn and the University of Debrecen co-organise the 14th National and International Conference about Lifelong Learning and Higher Education for 19-20. April, 2018, focusing on the theme of:

Social and Economic Benefits of University Lifelong Learning: Research – Development and Innovation

A felsőoktatási lifelong learning társadalmi és gazdasági haszna: kutatás – fejlesztés – innováció

Planned strands:

- Career development, counselling and guidance in higher education as services of university lifelong learning
- Research and statistical analysis in university lifelong learning in the scope of EU2020 strategy and Agenda2030 – ASEM LLL session
- Virtual education and effective learning in higher education environment
- Community development, community learning and lifelong learning innovations
- Promoting the learning and employment of senior adults through higher education
- Technological innovations, RDI in Higher Education and Industry4.0

Venue: University of Debrecen, Main Building

Time: 19-20. April, 2018.

During the Conference, distinguished policy makers, researchers and academic staff will use their keynotes and presentations, enter into round-table talks in order to analyse essential aspects and trends of individual, collective or organisational learning within higher education environment with a particular attention to conditions like contents, methodology, time, practice and resources.

In case you decide to participate our conference, may we ask you to send us your registration form and abstract by 31. March, 2018 to the following address:

http://melllearn.hu/melllearn_2018

MELLearn 2017 Conference partners are the Hungarian Rectors' Conference, Tempus Public Foundation and eucen

